

TalentSoft revolutionises talent management with TS Spring'13, the new version of its solution

TalentSoft, the leader of Integrated Talent Management in SaaS, launches TS Spring'13. Even more customisable and intuitive, this new version of TalentSoft provides unique functionalities inspired by social networks to encourage cooperation around HR processes and facilitate user adoption.

"TalentSoft was recently positioned by Gartner among the Visionaries of the Magic Quadrant for Talent Management Suites, particularly for ease of use. Our integrity lies in our commitment to customer satisfaction by offering easily accessible and innovative software. Our newest version confirms our desire to accompany HR Directors on a daily basis providing a simple and ergonomic tool, suited to their needs", commented Alexandre Pachulski, Vice President Products, TalentSoft.

Spotlight on 3 innovations Spring '13

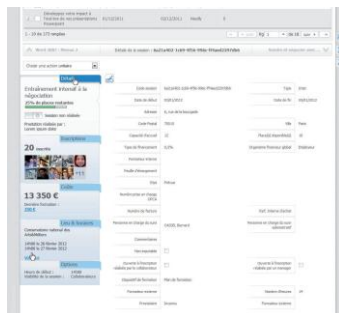

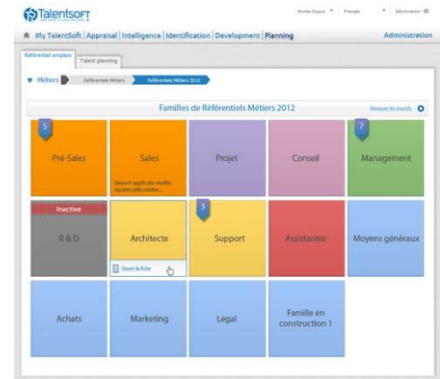

TS Libraries: Highly intuitive navigation and advanced customisation of HR libraries

TalentSoft simplifies the use of job and competence catalogues: interactive tile displays, customisable backgrounds, comments zones, etc.

TS Libraries provides an operating depth that is unique to the market: HR teams can create as many jobs and job categories as they wish.

The possibility to customise HR catalogues in real time based on the development of your company's business, allows you to better anticipate future competence needs.

TS Libraries is truly an HR marketing tool that encourages teams to browse and discover your job and competence catalogues and become an active player in their career.

TS Training 2013: new ergonomics to facilitate training management

New ergonomics, rapid access to key information, etc. TS Training is immediately adopted by its users.

More intuitive, TS Training provides optimised reading comfort, highlighting targeted information to increase productivity.

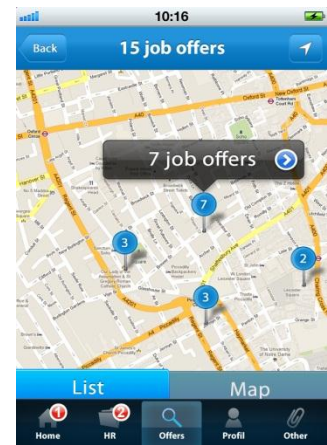

The TS Quicklook functionality provides a clear, summarised view (number of people registered, the cost, date of the training) enabling Training Managers to find a session's key information at a glance.

TalentSoft on your mobile device: a Career app for candidates

Developed to offer the best candidate experience, this application has all the functionalities expected from a career site: real-time monitoring of HR content, geolocation of offers, Push notifications and information synchronised with the candidate's on-line account.

Candidates can consult the latest company news at any time and apply for job offers from their telephone, via their on-line candidate profile or their Viadeo and LinkedIn profiles.

Companies revitalise their employer branding and create a close relationship with their candidates.
